

CREATE NYC

A CULTURAL PLAN FOR ALL NEW YORKERS

HOW SHOULD NEW YORK CITY SUPPORT ARTS AND CULTURE?

Join us at CreateNYC's Staten Island Borough-Wide Workshop.

Show up to share your ideas about the future of arts and culture in New York City.

Make sure your voice is included in the plan.

STATEN ISLAND WORKSHOP

Thursday, January 12th, 6-8:30pm
The College of Staten Island
Campus Center (Building 1C)
2800 Victory Boulevard

PARKING: Parking Lot 4

BUS: S62 and S92 Buses along Victory Blvd stop at the main entrance to the campus, walk 15 minutes to Building 1C. S61 and S91 Buses along Forest Hill Rd stop at the East entrance to the campus, walk 15 minutes to Building 1C.

Food & Performances.

Childcare and Spanish interpretation provided.
Visit CreateNYC.org for more information.

Note: space is limited.

The College of Staten Island Campus Center (Building 1C) has an accessible front entrance and accessible restrooms. ASL interpretation will be provided.

We encourage all persons with disabilities – residents, artists, members of the cultural community to attend. To request additional information regarding accessibility or accommodations at the event, please contact Sara Cobb at: disabilityfacilitator@culture.nyc.gov / (212) 513-9376.